

Sharing Knowledge to Create Healthier Communities

Dear Colleagues and Partners,

It's been an exciting third quarter for Healthy Northeast Ohio. We continue to explore dynamic ways to serve all of our regional partners and provide access and resources related to community health improvement. As you may recall, we held our first Regional Convening on Thursday, June 24. During the event, participants were able to discuss and share community health improvement efforts across the region. Thank you to the nearly 60 individuals who joined us! If you missed this event, you may view a recording of the meeting here. The Healthy Northeast Ohio team is in the process of planning for another Regional Convening later this fall. Registration information will be shared when available. We hope to see you then!

Sincerely,

The Healthy Northeast Ohio Team

HEALTHY NORTHEAST OHIO

Sharing Knowledge to Create Healthier Communities

Social determinants of health are the conditions in the places where people live, learn, work and play that affect health and well-being. Social determinants of health can impact health, well-being, and quality of life, and can also contribute to health disparities and inequities.

Emergency Preparedness Resources

National Preparedness Month is observed every September to raise awareness about being prepared for emergencies and disasters. To support and promote this important information, an Emergency Preparedness Resources page is now available on Healthy Northeast Ohio. This page features local and national resources that can assist our regional partners to prepare for a public health emergency. Please share this link with partners and colleagues who may find this information valuable.
